WORLD SERIES YOUTH BASEBALL EVENT

AT THE RONALD REAGAN PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY & MUSEUM, JULY 17, 2008

WHAT: Come to the Reagan Library on Thursday, July 17th for a day of fun-filled activities the entire family can enjoy. Games for children include knock-em-down, ring toss, batting cages and pitching. Other activities include jumpers, an obstacle course, a rock climber and musical entertainment. Children can also have their face painted, get balloon animals, and enjoy hands-on activities including making pencil baseball pennants, picture frames, coloring and more. Food for sale includes "baseball fare" including dodger dogs, peanuts, cracker jacks, cotton candy, churros, and icees. In addition, all kids under the age of 18 will receive a free baseball and jelly bellies, while supplies last!

In conjunction with the baseball event, a special baseball exhibit will run from July 7 through July 21 and will include gifts sent to President Reagan from baseball teams and players including signed caps, balls and bats.

All baseball-related games and activities are free to attend. Regular admission rates apply to visit the Museum and exhibits. For more information, please call 805-522-2977 or visit www.reaganlibrary.com.

This event is in conjunction with Simi Youth Baseball and the 2008/2009 Shetland and Pinto World Series. For more information on Simi Youth Baseball or the World Series, please visit www.simiworldseries.com.

Special thanks to The Jelly Belly Candy Company, Coca-Cola Enterprises, The Hershey Company and Farmer Johns.
